

The Daily Hasher

EXTRA EXTRA

Read all about it!!!

Going Potty in Pottsville

Reporters Heart Starter and Pithead

Residents in Pottsville are shaking in their boots as information has been received that a rowdy group of derelicts, calling themselves Brisbane Thirsty Hash House Harriers, will descend on Pottsville from 17th to 19th May, 2019.

BREAKING NEWS!!!

The Daily Hasher has obtained exclusive information that the theme for this event will be HIPPY HIPPY.

Inside sources say that this will fit in with the local community.

Hashers OS and Wagga Rod

It is alleged that on Friday night, the hashers will converge at Pottsville Tavern, Overall

Drive, for a meet and greet where everyone will pay for their own food and beverages. Management is fearful the bar will run dry so are closing the kitchen at 8pm and kicking everyone out at 10pm.

Lunch on Saturday will be held at 12noon at the Mooball Creek and Playground.

Locals are hopeful that some of the hashers will get lost (this reporter couldn't work out whether this would be a good thing or not) on their run/walk on Saturday to take place right after lunch. There will be an extended drink stop, river crossing, and a beach segment on this much anticipated walk.

Afterwards the hashers will meet at the secret location for frivolities known in hash circles as "The Circle" This will include extended drinks bucket until they run out.

Local restaurateur Adrian Leftovers was interviewed by Pottsville correspondent Heartstarter regarding the Saturday night dinner at his boutique restaurant The Palm at 1 Coronation Ave. “ How they’re all gonna fit in here I don’t know but we’ll close the doors so it’ll be an intimate affair. We’re a walk from the caravan park. We’re a fine dining establishment so we won’t be serving no crappy bowls club food. We're gonna have schooners and wine and some sort of entertainment so this restaurant will go off!” restaurateur Adrian remarked.

Roving Reporter asked Captain Ned about Sunday Breakfast – “We don’t f’n know yet where its gonna be but there will be one.” was his succinct reply. However, Captain Ned did mention the giveaways on the weekend will be something ‘that will flip your lid’.

Market-goers on Sunday may see the hashers wandering around in a hangover induced daze in the park across from The Palm. Parents are warned to keep their children away from these lecherous beasts.

The Daily Hasher will be covering this monumental event which is sure to rock this seaside town to its core. We can report that anyone wishing to attend this event should fill out the registration form and pay the fees asap.

