Valentine's Day / Chinese New Year Theme Run

29 eager Hashers gathered at The Brew Master's, the Grange despite the hot and humid weather. Quite a few Hashers got dressed according to our Valentine's Day and Chinese New Year themes.

Our GM Lilo wore a sexy backless little Chinese top, she is shrinking by the week! Jake the Peg looked sexy in a red Japanese (NOT Chinese) mini dress with a Geisha print.

Pizza came in his blue Chinese Happy Coat with a Turkish looking head piece! Can't figure this one out!!

The Hare Kimasutra looked great with her blue lingerie lacy bra and pantie worn over her running gear.

Coco looked great in her red hot sexy corset paired with a pair of black hot pants!

The Scribe Long Stroke in her red and floral Chinese top in tune with the Chinese New Year theme.

The Run

The walker trail was marked in yellow chalk and flour, and the runner's trail was in white arrows and flour. The Hare promised an easy trail with no hills which wasn't true! The Run/Walk were very well marked with lots of big arrows and through some lovely parklands and creek. A great drink stop in the park was very welcomed with icy cold fruit punch and Fortune Cookies! Well done Kimmy with help from Woppa at the drink stop.

The Circle

Flower, the Song Mistress stood in as RA as Shiggy was nowhere in sight.

Returnee : Boxy

Visitors : Red Hot Chilli Willy from the Sunshine Coast

Ned gave the runner's trail a 10,000 out of 10 said it all!

Whinge.com reckoned it's a brilliant walk and she even finished the entire walk!

Down Downs

Tinker Bell called Pizza out and tried to get him to fit into a pair of tiny Crocs just like for the bound feet of yesteryear in China!

Kimasultra was charged by Whoppa for producing a night vision map for the run and drink stop.
